Choose Cuenca

- ▶ For the warmth and hospitality of the “Cuencanos”.
- ▶ For the colonial heritage and local colour.
- ▶ For the mild year-round climate.
- ▶ For beautifully spoken Spanish.
- ▶ For the magnificent surroundings.
- ▶ For an authentic taste of Latin America.

The City

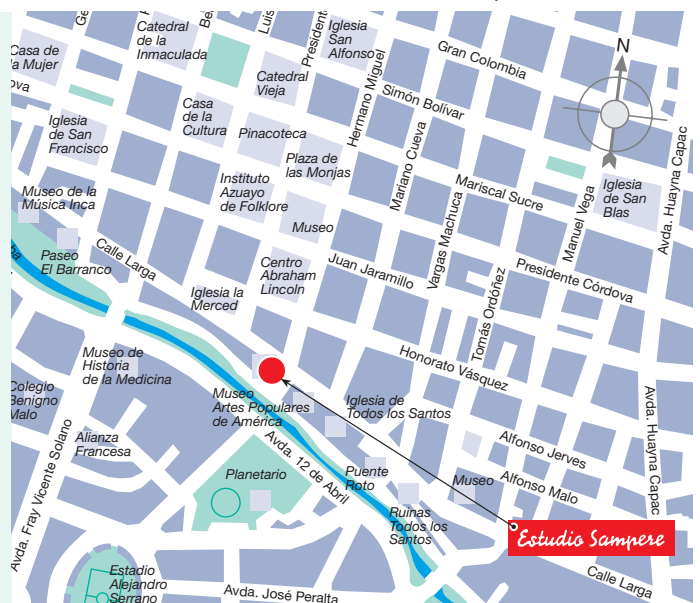

Cuenca is the cultural capital of Ecuador and its third largest city. It is also Ecuador’s best-kept secret.

Cuenca and its surrounding region are rich in history, with a colonial atmosphere that has survived thanks to years of almost complete isolation. Cuenca is a city of fascinating contrasts: two universities, museums and art galleries stand alongside Indian markets rarely visited by foreigners. Exploring this delightful Latin American city and getting to know its friendly people will make you want to stay forever...

Arrival and departure

To reach Cuenca from abroad, you must fly into Quito or Guayaquil. Many airlines fly from Europe and the US to Quito or Guayaquil at reasonable prices. The best day for arrival in Quito or Guayaquil is Saturday, since it is not always possible to connect with a Cuenca flight on the same day. Estudio Sampere Cuenca offers a transfer service from Quito or Guayaquil to Cuenca.

VOLUNTEER PROGRAMME

Estudio Sampere in Cuenca is now offering students who enroll in the Intensive Course for a minimum of four weeks the unique opportunity to live and work as a volunteer in one of several sectors of Ecuadorian society. Some of the options are to teach English to primary-grade students, child-care, help senior citizens in their daily routine, assist the homeless or serve as tour guides in the national parks and reserves. The majority of these volunteer options are compatible with the Spanish program/Intensive Course and the students may take the courses at Estudio Sampere while working simultaneously in the capacity of volunteers. All volunteers must have an intermediate level of proficiency in the four skills of Spanish: reading, writing, comprehension and oral communication. The students enrolled must make a commitment to stay with the program for a minimum of four weeks.
